General comments	Delegations' comments	Country response
The United States welcomes UNICEF's Country Program for Bangladesh covering the period of 2022-2026 and appreciate UNICEF's in-country coordination with the United States. We encourage UNICEF country office to continue to discuss its analysis of challenges and risks associated with the implementation of the CPD, including oversight and PSEA.

The United States and other Executive Board members - in formal and informal meetings of the Executive Board and with UN leadership, including the Development Coordination Office (DCO) – as well as OP74 of A/Res/75/233 have set clear expectations that the UN development system do a better job to sequence entity-specific country program documents and their underlying cooperation frameworks and/or outcome matrices. We note that only a draft outcome matrix was provided, without indication that it had been agreed by the Government and UNCT. In the future, we encourage UNICEF to ensure that finalized UNSDCF's and/or clearly marked 'final' or 'approved' outcome matrices are provided along with the draft Country Program Documents during the designated commenting period.
